2000 Atlanta University Center Research Day, 2nd Place in Oral Presentations

1998-2001 Alpha Lambda Delta Honor Society

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

2015-Present Investigator
 Morehouse College, Atlanta, GA
 Investigator of a mixed methodology study to adapt, implement, and evaluate the Healthy Relationships program for incoming students during New Student Orientation at Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCU). The intervention is peer-lead and has collaborated with the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention to train 120+ students to facilitate the interactive and theory-driven intervention in Georgia and North Carolina. This study is currently in the second round of implementation and evaluation.

2013-Present Investigator
 Emory University, Atlanta, GA
 Investigator of a randomized control trial (Afiya Texting Trial) currently enrolling young women focused on exploring the impact of whether an established STI/HIV prevention workshop (Afiya) designed to help young women protect themselves from HIV and STDs can be extended over time through the use of strategically constructed SMS-based messages. Results of the RCT will provide evidence of feasibility and preliminary data for a larger RCT to test the efficacy of SMS-based sexual health messages.

2011-2012 National Research Service Award (NRSA) Fellow,
 University of Georgia, Athens, GA
 Funded to conduct a two-phase, mixed methods examination of sexual concurrency among African-American young women. Develop study methodology with mentoring team at University of Georgia and Emory University. Recruit participants, collect data, analyze data, and present results for the qualitative and quantitative study phases.

2009 Graduate Research Assistant,
 University of Georgia, Athens, GA
 Responsible for corresponding with Assistant Superintendent of the Georgia Department of Juvenile Justice to conduct surveys for incarcerated adolescents. Write literature reviews related to risk behaviors among incarcerated adolescents. Assist with PowerPoint presentation development.

- 2003-2004      Graduate Research Assistant,
University of Maryland, College Park, MD
Responsible for researching information on HIV/AIDS in minority communities, cultural competency in the health care setting and risky behaviors among adolescents and college students. Assisted in developing an intervention and media tools for physicians specializing in HIV/AIDS care. Assisted with developing data collection procedures to for study on patient-provider communication.
- 2000-2002      Research Assistant,
Spelman College, Atlanta, GA
Responsible for researching information on Emotional Intelligence and adolescents' attitudes towards violence. Consolidated information into a literature review. Obtained parental consents, distributed, administered and collected survey packets. Analyzed data using SPSS.
- 2000            Summer Research Opportunity Program,
University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, MI
Worked with principal investigator on the Fathers & Sons Project, The Teen Moms Project, and The Flint Adolescent study. Assisted principal investigator in modifying and timing research questionnaire, talked with community leaders in Flint to gather input regarding the research project, and conducted literature searches on related research topics. Evaluated and analyzed Udry's Adolescent Health national database for personal summer project. Researched, wrote, and presented thesis on how multiple risky behaviors of adolescents affect the age of onset of sexual activity.
- 2000            Ujima Project,
Georgia State University, Atlanta, GA
Conducted initial screening for research program focusing on 1) unplanned pregnancy and 2) teen parent education at Marietta Regional Youth Detention Center. Obtained verbal and written consent from parents. Facilitated unplanned pregnancy prevention courses. Assisted clinician in the facilitation of parent education classes. Administered surveys to program participants. Coded, scored, and entered research data.

WORK EXPERIENCE

- 2004-2012      Research Project Coordinator,
Emory University Rollins School of Public Health, Atlanta, GA
Projects Imara, Afiya, and HORIZONS
Responsible for implementing risk reduction workshops and monthly intervention calls for adolescent girls engaging in risky sexual behavior. Develop curriculum for a risk reduction intervention adapted for girls in a Regional Youth Detention Center. Coordinate hiring and training of facilitators.
- 2005-2007      Health Educator,
Emory University Rollins School of Public Health, Atlanta, GA
Project Eban

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Courses Taught

Instructor: Introduction to Public Health

Morehouse College, Public Health Sciences Institute, Fall 2016 – Present

Course goal: This course is designed to introduce students to the interdisciplinary field of public health and to support students in developing a set of constructive and evaluative criteria for taking a critical look at socio-cultural, historic, as well as preeminent public health issues.

Responsibilities: Designed syllabus and developed course lectures and assignments. Bring in guest lecturers in various careers and research fields in public health.

Instructor: Introduction to Epidemiology

Morehouse College, Public Health Sciences Institute, Spring 2016 – Present

Course goal: This course is designed to introduce the basic practices and applications of epidemiology. The course will provide the students with a foundation for understanding the theory and application of epidemiology and a conceptual framework for understanding epidemiology. Students learn to apply epidemiologic tools for the study of health.

Responsibilities: Designed syllabus and developed course lectures and assignments.

Instructor: Biostatistics

Morehouse College, Spring 2017

Course goal: Provide a brief introduction to research design; introduce students to quantitative data analysis techniques; introduce students to statistical software (SPSS), output interpretation using SPSS, and writing lab reports based on results

Responsibilities: Designed syllabus and developed course lectures and assignments.

Instructor: Principles of Curriculum and Instruction in Health Education

Rollins School of Public Health, Emory University, Spring 2015, Spring 2016, Spring 2017

Course goal: Introduce students to the concept of designing health education programs and materials using instructional design methodologies. The instructional design process will highlight the relationship between instructional analysis, instructional goals/objectives, strategies and techniques, and evaluation. Guide students through partnering with a community organization in Atlanta and developing a curriculum, lesson plans, teaching materials while develop students' instructional skills.

Responsibilities: Design syllabus, develop course lectures and assignments, establish partnerships with community organizations.

Instructor: Research Methods and Statistics III Lecture

Morehouse College, Fall 2014 – Present

Course goal: Introduce students to advanced statistical techniques, including those used in quantitative and qualitative research designs. Statistical techniques include ANOVA, correlation, multiple regression, content analysis, interviews, and focus groups. Guide students through critically evaluating published work in psychology.

Responsibilities: Design syllabus and develop course lectures and assignments.

Instructor: Research Methods and Statistics III Lab
Morehouse College, Fall 2014, Spring 2015

Course goal: Use lab activities to give students the opportunity to apply basic research methods in psychology, including research design, data analysis, and interpretation using SPSS and qualitative data software.

Responsibilities: Designed syllabus and developed course lectures and assignments.

Instructor: Health Psychology
Morehouse College, Fall 2014

Course goal: Familiarize students with the discipline of health psychology and the role of the health psychologist. Use a biopsychosocial and cross-cultural perspective to examine prevention, etiology, diagnosis, and treatment of illness.

Responsibilities: Designed syllabus and developed course lectures and assignments. Organize service-based learning experience.

Instructor: Research Methods (NIHM-COR Seminar)
Morehouse College, Fall 2012

Course goal: To give honors students the opportunity to explore the theory and practice of science beyond that normally provided in college research methodology courses, and to familiarize students with issues across all disciplines of science.

Responsibilities: Designed syllabus and developed course lectures and assignments.

Instructor: Health Consumerism (HPRB 3210)
University of Georgia, Fall 2008 – Spring 2010

Course goal: focused on health products and services and factors that influence personal choices in the health marketplace, including 1) consumer behavior, 2) manufacturer and producer practices, and 3) health policies.

Responsibilities: Designed syllabus, developed course lectures, created packet of supplemental reading materials, developed course examinations, and created and moderated discussions online.

Guest Lectures

Adolescent Health

Topic: Sexual behaviors and sex education

Emory University, Rollins School of Public Health, Fall 2012

Grant Writing

Topic: Grant Writing for community-based organizations

Emory University, Rollins School of Public Health, Spring 2011, Fall 2012, Fall 2013

INTERVENTIONS AND MATERIALS

Curriculum Development and Adaptation Experience

Healthy Relationships for HBCUs

Morehouse College, Public Health Sciences Institute, 2015

Peer-lead program for college freshmen during New Student Orientation. Developed and adapted in partnership with Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), Spelman College, and Morehouse College.

Real Talk

Emory University, 2012-2013

Real Talk is a sexual risk reduction intervention targeting middle and high school aged adolescent males in St. Maarten. Worked with a team to develop and test the multi-session intervention.

N-LITEN

Emory University, 2010-2014

NLITEN is an intervention aiming to reduce risky sexual behaviors exacerbated by alcohol use, thereby decreasing risk for STD/HIV acquisition. Worked with PI to adapt Evidence-Based Interventions (EBI) for a new population, including writing a script and creating a video module component.

Imara

Emory University, 2008-2010

Imara is an STD/HIV prevention intervention for recently incarcerated adolescents involving group and one-on-one sessions focused on HIV and STD risk reduction using Motivational Interviewing Skills. Worked with PI to adapt Evidence-Based Interventions (EBI) for a new setting and population.

Afiya

Emory University, 2005-2008

Afiya is a HIV prevention maintenance study among adolescents including a 5-hour workshop followed by phone calls tailored to participants' sexual risk reduction challenges. Worked with PI to develop mobile health call sessions for behavioral maintenance intervention.

Interventions Facilitated

HORIZONS, Afiya, Eban, Imara, NLITEN

Emory University, 2001-2002, 2004-2014

Multi-session STD/HIV risk reduction interventions tailored for sexually active African American young women (HORIZONS, Afiya), sero-discordant couples (Eban), incarcerated African American teen girls (Imara), and alcohol using African American women (N-LITEN).

Alternative Suspension Program Communication Course

Henry County YMCA & Department of Juvenile Justice, 2001-2002

This was a multi-session Alternative Suspension Program Communication Course for adjudicated adolescents and their parents to improve parent-adolescent communication. Program participation was mandated by Henry County, Georgia, Department of Juvenile Justice.

Outdoor Adventure-Based Learning Program

Centennial Place YMCA & Henry County YMCA, 2000-2002

The Outdoor Adventure-Based Learning Program at Henry County YMCA focused on facilitating one-day action-learning experiences for various groups interested in team- and skills-building. Clients ranged from student groups and corporate clients.

Ujima

Georgia State University and Marietta Regional Youth Detention Center, 2000

The purpose of Ujima was to 1) improve parenting skills for adolescent parents while they were incarcerated (intervention condition) and 2) increase knowledge regarding pregnancy and STD prevention (control condition). I was responsible for leading control condition sessions.
